ASHEVILLE TEACCH CENTER

BACKGROUND

Since 1972, Division TEACCH has coordinated the nation's largest statewide public based educational and treatment programs for children with autism and related communication handicaps. With current practices emphasizing least restrictive settings, many more children with autism and other severe behavior, learning and communication problems are being served in public schools, thus creating a need for in-service training activities for teachers. In recent years, TEACCH has made its training activities available to teachers and other professionals from around the world.

APPLICATION PROCESS

There are limited slots available for each training session. Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Final deadline for receipt of applications and payments is November 9, 2009. Spaces fill quickly.

TRAVEL

Asheville is accessible via I-240. The closest airport is Asheville Regional Airport and is 15 miles from downtown Asheville. All trainings are held at the Asheville TEACCH Center. Directions to the center will be included in your acceptance materials.
